How To Read The Bible

"If you can read you can learn anything."

If you are going to learn the Bible, you will have to develop the habit of reading large portions of the Scriptures.

Bible study is essential to become "approved unto God" (2 Timothy 2:15).

Unless you have a regular habit of reading the Bible, You will never develop a regular study habit.

1) Read Daily

Daily Bible reading is to your spiritual life what daily eating is to your physical life. (Job 23:12)

If you don't set a time to study your Bible daily your good intentions will never be realized and you will only occasionally read your Bible.

2) Set a regular reading time

How much time should I devote to reading the Bible each day?

If you mean business with God and really want to develop a working knowledge of the Word, you had better plan on a minimum of 15 minutes daily.

Most people who do this daily say that after 1-2 months they develop the reading habit to the extent that frequently they became so into God's Word that they lost track of time and went much longer than 15 minutes.

3) Set a regular place

Better concentration in a regular place
Reading done in a sitting position and preferably at a desk, as it aids in concentration.

4) Read with a pencil or pen at hand.

Many Christians read the bible but don't allow their mind to catch it all. Their eyes read the word but their brain wasn't turned on.

The best way to dial your brain into a vital attitude is to pick up a pencil and be ready to receive a message from God.
